ALPHA WEBINAR: Please join us for the next joint Alpha & Divine Renovation webinar Intentional Invitation: From Good Experiences to Life Changing Encounters taking place on Tuesday 21st November at 8pm.

We all want our parish to be an inviting place where people encounter Jesus in a life-changing way. But the reality is, there's an art to invitation that is lost in most of our parishes — and with it the opportunities to invite people to know and follow our Lord. If invitation matters as a stepping stone into faith and ongoing conversion, how do we create these experiences intentionally?

PS FROM BRIAN WOOD: Many years ago, Acker Bilk, the clarinetist and band leader, was on a cruise ship enjoying a holiday. On the first evening; he turned up for dinner and met a French man sitting opposite him at table. The French man said to Acker "Bon appetit." Acker spoke no French and thought he was introducing himself so he replied "Acker Bilk." This exchange happened over the next few meals until a fellow passenger took Acker to one side and told him "He's saying 'Enjoy your meal.'" At the next meal, Acker arrived at table and said to the man "Bon appetit". The man, triumphantly, with a thick French accent, replied "Acker Bilk." Dear Jesus, we thank you for all the wonderful music Acker and his band gave to the world.

A VIEW FROM THE PEW: (Carol Baines)

I was thinking recently how the attitude of the Church towards small children at mass has changed over the years. I only have experience of St Wulstan's in the 1960s and 70s. As a young mother of three children under five years, that time was very different from today. Then, it seemed to me that small children should be seen but definitely not heard. Often during the service, the priest would stop speaking if a child cried or caused a disturbance until the child was removed from the church. No sanctuary in the lady chapel! Also, the church floor was cleaned by ladies on hands and knees polishing the floor with wax polish. Prams with dirty wheels were discouraged. Now, the children's liturgy, making children an integral part of the service, makes a significant difference to how they are welcomed in the church. Thanks to all concerned with this important work every week.

A MESSAGE FROM LIZ BODEN: Dear Father Alf, Please can you let the people who wave at the camera at the end of Mass just how much they are appreciated. I know I am no longer a parish member, but it makes me feel included just the same. How much more must it feel for your parishioners who are unable to attend Mass in person. I hope you are staying well. Best wishes and God bless. Liz x
